What are the risks of investing?

Risk indicator for the Trans-Tasman Equities Fund:

The risk indicator is rated from 1 (low) to 7 (high). The rating reflects how much the value of the fund's assets goes up and down. A higher risk generally means higher potential returns over time, but more ups and downs along the way.

To help you clarify your own attitude to risk, you can seek financial advice or work out your risk profile at https://sorted.org.nz/tools/investor-profiler/ .

Note that even the lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment, and there are other risks that are not captured by this rating.

This risk indicator is not a guarantee of a fund's future performance. The risk indicator is based on the returns data for the five years to 30 September 2026 [1]. While risk indicators are usually relatively stable, they do shift from time to time. The risk indicator will continue to be updated in future fund updates.

See the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) for more information about the risks associated with investing in this fund.

How has the fund performed?[2]

	Past year
Annual return (after deductions for charges and tax)	Not applicable
Annual return (after deductions for charges but before tax)	Not applicable

Notes

1. This fund came into existence on 14 May 2026. We've calculated the risk indicator using market index returns data for periods from 1 October 2021 to this date, and actual fund returns data afterwards. Using market index returns data may make the risk indicator a less reliable indicator of how much fund values might go up and down in future.
2. Because the fund has not been in existence for a full year as at the relevant date, we have not included annual return figures. We have however included market index returns.
3. The fund has not been in existence for the whole of the most recent scheme year, so these are the fund charges that will be charged, rather than the fund charges that were charged in the most recent scheme year.
4. Excluding GST.
5. Please note that because the fund has not been in existence for a full year as at the relevant date, this example and the returns shown are for the period since inception, not annual figures.
6. Octagon Asset Management Limited is responsible for the day-to-day investment decisions for the fund.
7. Since the 30 June 2026 Quarterly Fund Update, Matthew Goodson and Paul Harrison have replaced Jason Lindsay and Neil Paviour-Smith in the key personnel table above.

Please note that Salt Investment Funds Limited replaced Forsyth Barr Investment Management Limited as the manager and issuer of the Octagon Investment Funds on 31 July 2026.
